To W. L. Garrison.

Newport. R. I.

Jan. 2. 1865

Dear Sir

I not without regret, I have made up my mind to discontinue my "Liberator". For the last six months I have rarely found any pleasure in reading it; and I do not feel bound to sustain it, as a matter of duty, while in its present attitude.

Very truly yours

T. W. Higginson

Ms.A.1.2 V.34, P.1

Col. T. W. Higginson

Newport

R. I.

3 Jan'y 1865